Rockford, IL- Lefthander Chassis and the Midwest Racer's Auction and Trade Show announced today a joint effort to provide the Racer's Winter Get-A-Way Destination on Friday January 9 and Saturday January 10, 2009. With both organizations hosting short track racing industry events just five minutes apart in the greater Rockford area, a Weekend Racer's Pass is being offered to attendees for just $12.

By purchasing the Weekend Racer's Pass, guests will be able to enjoy all that the 29th annual Midwest Motorsports Racers' Auction and Trade Show offers as well as numerous activities at the Lefthander Chassis compound just minutes north on Interstate 90. This discount pass will allow access to each event for both days.

Included functions at the Indoor Sports Center, 8800 E. Riverside Blvd, Loves Park, IL 61111 include the Racers' Auction, Trade Show, Big 8 Series meeting on Saturday at 2pm, Mid-American Stock Car Series meeting at 10am on Saturday and a Friday Night Party following the auction. The Lefthander Chassis Trade Show located at 13750 Metric Drive in Roscoe, IL 61073 will include over fifty of the top manufacturers, shop tours as well as complimentary admission into the world renowned Historic Auto Attraction Museum. In addition Lefthander is offering two days of seminars for an additional fee.

The Weekend Racer's Pass will be available for purchase at either location starting on Friday January 9. The Racing Community is set for a fun filled weekend in Rockford, discount hotel rates are available at many of the area hotels, for a complete list visit www.lefthanderchassis.com or www.midwestracersauction.com.
